

LIST OF CONTENTS VOLUME 1, 1987

---

Volume 1, Number 1

1987

CONTENTS

Chrisann Schiro-Geist

i Editorial

William H. Graves
Darrell D. Coffey
Rochelle Habeck
E.W. Stude

1 NCRE position paper: Definition of the qualified rehabilitation professional

George N. Wright
Michael J. Leahy
Pamela S. Riedesel

9 Rehabilitation education research: The importance and attainment of professional competencies

NCRE Committee on Undergraduate Rehabilitation
Education

19 National Council on Rehabilitation Education position statement on undergraduate rehabilitation education

Paul Leung

29 Rehabilitation counselor education or rehabilitation technical training?

John J. Benshoff
Cable Starlings
William G. Emener
Vincent Scalia

35 Rehabilitation information development, dissemination, and utilization: Recommendations from selected rehabilitation leadership

Harry J. Parker
Fong Chan

47 Variables affecting rehabilitation counseling programs (masters level): A national survey

Book Reviews

Paul Leung

61 Health and Industry: A Behavioral Medicine Perspective by Michael F. Cataldo and Thomas Coates (Eds.)

Jean Boland Patterson

62 Rehabilitation Counselor Preparation and Development by William G. Emener (Ed.)

Current Issues

- 65 Draft: Code of professional ethics for rehabilitation counselors

---

Volume 1, Numbers 2/3

1987

SPECIAL ISSUE

Rehabilitation in Business and Industry

CONTENTS

- |  |   |
|--|---|
| Chrisann Schiro-Geist                  | 85 Editorial  |
| Valerie EllienEileen Wolkstein     | 87 Guest Editors' introduction  |
| Jay Rochlin                            | 89 Rehabilitation: An Employer's Perspective  |
| Rochelle V. HabeckDiane C. Munrowd | 95 Employer-based rehabilitation practice: An educational perspective               |
|  | 109 Rehabilitation in Business and Industry: Perspectives from Practitioners |
| Joan Z. Hoeffel                        | 111 In-house Rehabilitation   |
| Michael E. Scofield                    | 115 Application of rehabilitation competencies in a business environment            |
| Cynthia L. Leshner                     | 119 Rehabilitation practice in business and industry                                |
| Emily B. Ellis                         | 123 Rehabilitation counseling in transitional employment                            |
|  | 127 Ethical Issues   |
| Deborah A. Pape                        | 129 Teaching professional ethics: The heart of the matter                           |
| George N. Wright                       | 133 Ethical issues in proprietary rehabilitation                                    |

- 137 University-Based Programs: Some Current Efforts
- Ralph M. Crystal 139 Developing a business-industry emphasis in the curriculum
- Alex William Ursprung 143 Issues related to developing an employee assistance program specialization within existing rehabilitation curriculums
- Eileen Wolkstein 147 Internships in business and industry: Development issues
- 153 Supported Employment
- Peggy Todd 155 Supported Employment: Implications for Education
- 161 Fund Raising
- Patricia J. Livingston 163 Broad-based funding for rehabilitation education
- William Downey 167 Alternate funding resources for rehabilitation education
- 171 Curriculum Development
- Chrisann Schiro-Geist 173 Rehabilitation in business and industry: Implications for curriculum development
- Valerie Ellien 177 Curriculum review and evaluation
- Paul G. Gaines 181 Accessing resource materials for curriculum review and development
- Michael A. Klein 183 A systematic approach for planning counselor placement in business and industry
- 185 Marketing of Graduates
- Richard E. Desmond 187 Marketing rehabilitation counselors in business and industry

- Madan M. Kundu 191 Marketing and placing graduates in the private sector
- Michael E. Scofield 197 Opportunities for rehabilitation counselors in the private sector
- Joan Z. Hoeffel 201 Internships as a vehicle for marketing rehabilitation counseling to business and industry

Current Issues

- 205 CORE reviews standards
- Jeanne Patterson 221 CRCC update
- Richard W. Thoreson 223 Rehabilitation counseling from marginality to maturity
- 229 Letters to the Editor

---

Volume 1, Number 4

1987

CONTENTS

- Ralph E. Matkin 233 Content areas and recommended training sites of insurance rehabilitation knowledge
- Michael J. Gandy 247 Predicted earnings of visually handicapped rehabilitation clients: Relationship to selected personal and nonpersonal factors
- William F. Weber 255 Undergraduate rehabilitation skills preferred by Thomas L. Evenson the rehabilitation employer
Verlan Clapp
Kathleen W. Weigel
- Michael Klein 265 Counselors in business and industry: A survey of
Carol Rellick corporate human service programs and potential
James W. Kelz roles and functions

- Kay Fletcher Schriener 271 The evaluation of a skill building program for Virginia Anne Johnson rehabilitation placement practitioners
Reed Greenwood

Book Reviews

- Paul Leung 283 The Rehabilitation Detective by Paul C. Higgins
- Martha Lentz Walker 284 Rehabilitation Counseling: Basic and Beyond by R.M.
Parker (Ed.)
- James T. Herbert 286 Counseling Programs for Employees in the Workplace by Judith A. Lewis and Michael D. Lewis
- Ralph E. Matkin 288 Rehabilitation Psychology Desk Reference by Bruce
Caplan (Ed.)
- Marita M. Danek 289 Foundations of the Vocational Rehabilitation Process
(3rd ed.) by S.E. Rubin and R.T. Roessler
- Chow S. Lam 292 Foundations of the Vocational Rehabilitation Process
(3rd ed.) by S.E. Rubin and R.T. Roessler

Current Issues

- Leona H. Liberty 295 Textbooks used most widely in rehabilitation
Donald E. Sampson counselor education programs
- Susanne M. Bruyere 303 Focus on training
- Paul G. Gaines 305 Overview
- 307 List of Contents and Author Index, Volume 1, 1987